PROGRAM OVERVIEW

I. Purpose

The purpose for the establishment and maintenance of the Allegheny County Bar Association/Allegheny County Bar Foundation Public Interest Law Fellowship Program (PILFP) (“the Program”) is to strengthen public legal services in Allegheny County by supporting the recruitment and retention of the most qualified attorney advocates. The program will provide financial assistance to attorneys working in Allegheny County for eligible legal service organizations.

The Public Interest Law Fellowship Program Committee of the Allegheny County Bar Foundation (“the Committee”) will provide stipends to eligible attorneys who have shown exemplary performance and commitment in their fields of law. These awards may be recurring or non-recurring and may be issued as funds are available.

The Committee shall make stipends in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this document. The Committee will advertise the availability of funds and prescribe application forms for stipends not less than once per fiscal year to eligible applicants. The Committee shall have complete discretion to determine stipend amounts, qualifications, priorities, and all particulars of the stipend consistent with this document. It is recommended that the Committee shall advertise and accept applications from July 1 to August 15.
